2019 SHOW FEATURE "TOOLS"

Items made from timber alone, or enhanced with one or more metals, or plastic product. Tools may include 'workshop tools', 'garden tools', 'craft tools', 'tools of various trades'. "Tools" may be large or small (with consideration for space), may be painted in colours, or finished in a clear product, or remain in a "raw" state.

More than one entry per person is encouraged.

Prizemoney and vouchers generously donated by:-

Mitre 10 Boonah (Tony Richardson),

Fassifern Valley Glass & Aluminium (William and Amanda Jeffrey),

Stewart Sillis and Family (Boonah Cabinet Makers),

Howard and Clarice (Bub) Benstead, (Show Supporters).

A total of $300.00 cash, and $100.00 in vouchers are available for Winners.

Please Note: While "tools" is our 'show feature', entrants do not have to make tools alone.

The 'open' classes cater for woodwork of all kinds!

Please join us in 2019 (in our new 'twice-as-big' premises), when we aim to create another wonderful display, and attempt to overtake the 2018 total of 181 pieces of work on display!

OLD TOOLS: If you have an interesting old tool, bring it in, maybe it can be identified by a show-goer?

CHILDREN'S "INTERACTIVE AREA"

Come and see our "special effort", where we encourage juniors to try their hand at woodwork.
